

Volunteer Role Profile

Volunteer Role	Group Webpage Editor
Volunteer Manager	Group Chair
Where you will be based	Home

Why we want you

Local webpages make sure that the work and activities of the local group are publicised. Keeping local communities, and members, up to date with the issues facing walkers locally as well as the activities they can take part in is a valuable way to help raise the profile of the Ramblers and walking.

What you will be doing

- Keeping the webpage(s) current and up to date, in content and structure
- Working with fellow volunteers, collect relevant stories, information and messages to publish on the webpage(s)
- Making sure that the details of volunteers are only published if they've given formal permission

The skills you need

- Excellent written communication
- Able to edit webpages

What's in it for you

- A role that fits around your life
